Managing Your Time

Understand your calling

Relationships come first! –

- With God                      With Spouse                      With Children

Inside Robbers – Social Media / TV / Pinterest – Try a Fast
Devices – Use Voice Mail or Caller ID – PUT IT DOWN!

Outside Commitments – Decide what you SHOULD be doing

- Pray
- “Experiencing God”, by Henry Blackaby – Don’t just DO something – STAND THERE
- Always be willing to say “No”
- Family comes first!

Managing Your HOME

School – Meals – Clutter/Cleaning

Schooling – Here’s where scheduling can be essential. If our expectations are clearly made known to everyone in the family, they will know what to do and can work more independently. We also have to have a plan to keep them accountable. Lists and charts are great for this.

However . . . Break the mold – Who says it has to be done THAT way?

Give yourself permission to school the way that fits YOU! You have a style too.

Curriculum choice and uses – You don’t need a complete curriculum in every area. Don’t be boxed, limited, or jailed by curriculum. If it’s not working – STOP, even if you spent money.

Ideas:

- Don’t do every subject every day
- Don’t always start at the beginning – Test out
- Use unit studies
- Give credit for non-curriculum learning
- Use car time to listen to school
- Get a clear tablecloth
- Make your own weekly or monthly chart for them to check off

Networking – Co-op school and childcare

GIVE YOURSELF A BREAK!! Learning happens all the time. Deut 6:6-9

Meals – Your Freezer is your Friend! MAKE A PLAN!

Household clutter –
27 Things for 27 Days

It is junk if:

- It's broken or obsolete (and fixing it is unrealistic)
- You've outgrown it, physically or emotionally
- It will shock, bore, or burden the coming generation.

Ask yourself:

- Do I use it?
- Do I love it?
- Would I buy it again?
- Does it have a purpose?
- Does it have a place?
- Does it have a plan?
- Does it bring pleasure?

Household cleaning & laundry – DELEGATE!

- Best tip: 15 minutes clean sweep
- Schedule it OR
- Do. The. Next. Thing.

Paper & More Paper!

Remember the Hammock – REST!!!

- Create a place of rest
- Make-a-bed challenge
- Loosen your string!

Resources:
